Section 7. Title 54 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia is hereby further amended by adding a new section 711 to subchapter II of Chapter 7 to read as follows:

“Section 711. Establishment of the Federated States of Micronesia Unified Revenue Authority. The Federated States of Micronesia Unified Revenue Authority is hereby established under the laws of the Federated States of Micronesia. It may hereinafter be referred to as “the Authority”.

Section 8. Title 54 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia is hereby further amended by adding a new section 712 to subchapter II of Chapter 7 to read as follows:

“Section 712. Board of Directors of the Authority.

(1) There is a Board of Directors of the Authority that is the governing body of the Authority.

(2) The Board is responsible for monitoring the overall performance of the Authority and for determining policies relating to staffing of and procurement by the Authority.

(3) The Board must not intervene in the determination of an assessment, ruling application, liability, objection, or appeal of a person under a revenue law, or in any other operational matter of the Authority.”

Section 9. Title 54 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia is hereby further amended by adding a new section 713 to subchapter II of Chapter 7 to read as follows:

“Section 713. Appointment and Termination of Appointment of Directors.

(1) The Board consists of the following directors—
(a) the Secretary;
(b) a representative of the State of Chuuk appointed pursuant to Chuuk State law;
(c) a representative of the State of Kosrae appointed pursuant to Kosrae State law;
(d) a representative of the State of Pohnpei appointed pursuant to Pohnpei State law;
(e) a representative of the State of Yap appointed pursuant to Yap State law; and
(f) a representative of the private sector appointed by a majority of the directors referred to in paragraphs (a)-(e).

(2) The person appointed under subsection (1)(f) must be from a pool of candidates from the private sector nominated by the Governors, who in the opinion of the Board, has adequate experience in public administration, or in financial, commercial, tax, or legal matters. Each Governor may nominate no more than two persons from his State.

(3) The following persons must not be appointed under subsection (1)(f)–

(a) a person who is an undischarged bankrupt;
(b) a person who has been convicted of an offense under a revenue law, or who otherwise has been convicted of any other crime involving moral turpitude;

(c) a person whose affairs under all revenue laws are not up to date; or

(d) a person who is disqualified or suspended from practice of the person’s profession for misconduct.

(4) Before appointing a person under subsection
(1)(f), the Board must have regard to any potential conflicts of interest that the person may have.

(5) The person appointed as director under subsection (1)(a) holds office for as long as the person holds the office of Secretary.

(6) The person appointed as director under subsection (1)(b), (c), (d), or (e) holds office for pursuant to the State law of appointment.

(7) The person appointed as director under subsection (1)(f) holds office for a term not exceeding three years and is eligible for reappointment.

(8) The person appointed as director under subsection (1)(b), (c), (d), or (e) may be removed from office in accordance with the State law appointing the person as director.

(9) The person appointed as director under subsection (1)(f) may be removed from office by resolution of the Board if the director—

(a) has been absent, without leave of the Board, from three consecutive meetings of the Board;

(b) has become an undischarged bankrupt;

(c) has been convicted of an offense, or has become liable for a penalty, under a revenue law, including section 718 of this Chapter, or has been convicted of any other crime involving moral turpitude; or

(d) has become disqualified or suspended from practice of the person’s profession for misconduct.”

Section 10. Title 54 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia is hereby further amended by adding a new section 714 to subchapter II of Chapter 7 to read as follows:

“Section 714. Chairperson of the Board.

(1) The Chairperson of the Board is rotated annually among the five FSM governments as determined by the Board.

(2) The Chairperson may authorize, in writing, any director to exercise any power or perform any function conferred on the Chairperson by or under this Act.”

Section 11. Title 54 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia is hereby further amended by adding a new section 715 to subchapter II of Chapter 7 to read as follows:

"Section 715. Meetings of the Board.

(1) The Board must meet as often as may be necessary for the performance of its functions, provided that it shall meet on no less than four occasions each calendar year and provided, further, that at least two such meetings shall require the physical presence of the directors at a single location.

(2) At any meeting, the quorum of the Board is four directors. Subject to Subsection (1) of this Section, participation may be in person, teleconference, or by other appropriate electronic means in real time. A quorum, once established, shall not be broken by the absence or withdrawal of one (1) or more directors before a meeting is adjourned.

(3) Notice of a meeting of the Board must be given to each director and shall be delivered by hand or sent by post, facsimile, electronic mail, or other written message to an address supplied by the director to the Board for this purpose.

(4) Subject to subsection 5 of this Section, decisions at meetings of the Board are by a simple majority of the directors participating.
(5) The director appointed under Section 713(1)(f) is a non-voting member of the Board but is to be taken into account in determining whether a quorum exists.

(6) Subject to this Section, the Board may regulate its own procedure.

(7) The validity of a proceeding of the Board is not affected by a vacancy in the membership, or by any defect in the appointment, of a director.

(8) The Board may invite a person to attend a meeting of the Board for the purpose of advising it on any matter under discussion, but the person so attending has no right to vote at the meeting.”

Section 12. Title 54 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia is hereby further amended by adding a new section 716 to subchapter II of Chapter 7 to read as follows:

“Section 716. Transaction of Business Without Meeting.

A resolution of the Board is valid, even though it was not passed at a meeting of the Board, if—

(a) it is signed or assented to by all
(b) five Directors of the Board who are appointed under Section 713(1)(a), (b), (c), (d), and (e) hereof; and
(c) a notice in writing of the proposed resolution was given to each director.”

Section 13. Title 54 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia is hereby further amended by adding a new section 717 to subchapter II of Chapter 7 to read as follows:

“Section 717. Remuneration of Directors.
The directors of the Board and persons invited to attend a meeting of the Board under Section 715(8) are entitled to such remuneration as may be established by regulation.”

Section 14. Title 54 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia is hereby further amended by adding a new section 718 to subchapter II of Chapter 7 to read as follows:

“Section 718. Disclosure of Interest.
(1) A director of the Board who has a direct or indirect personal interest in the outcome of any matter before the Board must disclose the interest to the Board.

(2) The disclosure of an interest under subsection (1) must be recorded in the minutes of the Board.

(3) After making a disclosure under subsection (1), the director—

(a) in the case of a meeting, must withdraw from the meeting before the commencement of deliberations of the Board in respect of the matter referred to in subsection (1), although the director may be counted for the purposes of forming a quorum of the Board at the meeting; and

(b) in any case, must not vote on the matter.

(4) A director who contravenes this Section is guilty of an offense, and upon conviction is subject to a fine not exceeding $1000, imprisonment for not more than one year, or both.”

Section 15. Title 54 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia is hereby further amended by adding a new section 719 to subchapter II of Chapter 7 to read as follows:

“Section 719. Minutes of Meetings and Business Transacted.

(1) The Board must keep minutes of all its meetings and business transacted under Section 715 and 716 in a proper form.

(2) The minutes of a meeting, if duly signed by the Chairperson or person presiding, are admissible, in any legal proceedings, as evidence of the facts stated therein and a meeting of the Board in respect of which minutes have been so signed is treated as having been duly convened and held, and the directors present at the meeting have been duly appointed to act.

(3) Any minutes of a resolution dealt with under Section 716, if duly signed by the Chairperson, are admissible, in any legal proceedings, as evidence of the facts stated therein and that the resolution was properly dealt with in accordance with Section 716."

Section 16. Title 54 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia is hereby further amended by adding a new section 720 to subchapter II of Chapter 7 to read as follows:

"Section 720. Common Seal.

(1) The Authority must have a common seal of such design as it may decide.

(2) The common seal must be kept by the Chairperson and its affixing must be authenticated by two directors of the Board generally or specifically authorized by the Authority for the purpose, or by one such director and the Chairperson.

(3) All deeds, documents, and other instruments purporting to be sealed with the common seal and authenticated in accordance with subsection (2) are, unless the contrary is proved, presumed to have been validly executed.

(4) The common seal of the Authority must be officially and judicially noticed for all purposes."

Section 17. Title 54 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia is hereby further amended by adding a new section 721 to subchapter II of Chapter 7 to read as follows:
Section 721. Task Assignment by Board.

(1) The Board may, from time to time, by notice in writing under the hand of the Chairperson, assign to any person or committee a specific task to assist the Board in furtherance of its duties, provided that the Board may not delegate its policy-making power.

(2) An assignment under this Section may be made to a specified person or committee, or holder for the time being of a specified office or to the holders of offices of a specified class.

(3) An assignment may be made subject to such restrictions and conditions as the Board thinks fit, and may be made either generally or in relation to any particular case or class of case.

(4) A person or committee purporting to be acting under assignment of the Board must, when required to do so, produce satisfactory evidence of such assignment.

(5) A committee established under this section may regulate its own procedure but is subject to direction given by the Board.

(6) Sections 715, 716, 718, and 719 apply equally to members and meetings of a committee established under this Section.

(7) The members of a committee and persons invited to attend meetings of the committee to advise the committee are entitled to such allowances and expenses as the Board may fix by regulation.

Section 18. Title 54 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia is hereby amended by adding a new subchapter III of Chapter 7 to be entitled “Service of Authority”.

Section 19. Title 54 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia is hereby further amended by adding a new Section 731 to subchapter III of Chapter 7 to read as follows:

“Section 731. Appointment of Chief Executive Officer.

(1) The Board must appoint a Chief Executive Officer on such terms and conditions as the Board may determine.

(2) The CEO–

(a) shall serve for a term of four years, subject to reappointment by the Board;

(b) is responsible for the administration and enforcement of, and collection of revenue, under the revenue laws;

(c) is responsible for the day-to-day operations of the Authority;

(d) is responsible for the proper administration and management of the functions and affairs of the Authority in accordance with the policy laid down by the Board; and
(e) shall perform such other functions and duties as the Board may determine.

(3) Except as provided in Subsection (2), the CEO is not subject to the direction or control of any person.

(4) If the CEO is temporarily absent from the FSM, or temporarily unable to perform the duties of his office, the Board may appoint a person to act in the place of the CEO during that period.

(5) The Board may terminate the appointment of the CEO for incapacity, misbehavior, or misfeasance or malfeasance. A CEO whose appointment has been terminated under this Subsection may appeal to a Court of competent jurisdiction.”

Section 20. Title 54 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia is hereby further amended by adding a new section 732 to subchapter III of Chapter 7 to read as follows:

“Section 732. Appointment of Officers and Other Staff.
The CEO may appoint, on such terms and conditions as the Board may determine, such officers, employees, agents, or consultants as may be necessary or expedient for carrying out the functions and duties of the Authority.”

Section 21. Title 54 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia is hereby further amended by adding a new section 733 to subchapter III of Chapter 7 to read as follows:

"Section 733. Delegation of CEO’s Functions and Powers.

(1) Subject to Subsection (4) hereof, the CEO may, by written instrument, delegate to a revenue officer any of his or her functions and powers under any revenue law, other than this power of delegation.

(2) A reference in a revenue law to the CEO includes, in respect of the exercise of a power or performance of a function delegated to a revenue officer, a reference to the delegate.

(3) A delegation under this Section is revocable at will and does not prevent the exercise of a power or performance of a function by the CEO.

(4) The CEO shall not delegate the functions and powers of tax assessment and collection to any person other than an employee of the Authority, provided that nothing herein shall be deemed as limiting the CEO from retaining legal counsel, or contracting with consultants and others as may be necessary to assist the Authority perform its duties."

Section 22. Title 54 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia is hereby further amended by adding a new section 734 to subchapter III of Chapter 7 to read as follows:
"Section 734. Oath of Office.

The Board may prescribe an oath of office to be administered to revenue officers."

Section 23. Title 54 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia is hereby further amended by adding a new section 735 to subchapter III of Chapter 7 to read as follows:

"Section 735. Confidentiality and Disclosure of Information.

(1) Revenue officers, directors, employees of the Authority, former directors of the Board, former members of a committee of the Board, persons invited to a Board or committee meeting, former employees or contractors of the Authority, and any person formerly or presently engaged by the Authority in any capacity shall not disclose any business or personal document or information received during the performance of duties or in the course of any meeting of the Authority if such document or information is deemed confidential or secret by law or by generally accepted business practices, except that they may disclose a confidential or secret business or personal document or information to–

(a) another revenue officer, but only to the extent required by law or as may be necessary for the purposes of any revenue law;
(b) the Secretary, but only in relation to National taxes;

(c) a Finance Official of a State, but only in relation to the State’s taxes;

(d) the Secretary of Justice of the FSM Department of Justice or his designee, but only to the extent required for any legal action or claim by or against the National Government;

(e) the Attorney General of a State Government or his designee, but only to the extent required for any legal action or claim by or against the State;

(f) a court of competent jurisdiction upon order of such court, or to the extent necessary with respect to the enforcement of any revenue law;

(g) the National Public Auditor or a person authorized by the National Public Auditor in writing, but only to the extent that the disclosure is necessary for the performance of the audit of the Authority’s accounts;

(h) the State Public Auditor or a person authorized by the State Public Auditor in writing, but only to the extent that the disclosure is necessary for audit of accounts held by the Authority on behalf of the States;

(i) the competent authority of a government of a foreign country with which the FSM national government has entered into an agreement providing for the exchange of information, but only to the extent permitted under that agreement and applicable law; and

(j) a person with the written consent of the person to whom the documents or information relate.

(3) If a revenue officer is permitted to disclose documents or information under subsection (3), the officer must maintain secrecy and confidentiality except to the minimum extent necessary to achieve the object for which the disclosure is permitted.

(4) Every person who knowingly or intentionally violates any provision of Subsections (1) or (2) hereof, or a duty or obligation imposed therein, shall be guilty of a felony and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than $500.00 and not more than $5,000.00, or be imprisoned for not more than two years, or both.”

Section 24. Title 54 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia is hereby amended by adding a new subchapter IV of Chapter 7 to be entitled “Functions, Duties and Powers of the Authority.”

Section 25. Title 54 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia is hereby further amended by adding a new section functions of the Authority.

The primary function of the Authority is to maximize, over time, the collection of tax revenue lawfully owing to the FSM National Government and the States given the resources available to it. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Authority has the following specific functions—

(a) to act as agent in the collection of revenue on behalf of the FSM national government and the governments of the several States in accordance with their revenue laws;

(b) to otherwise administer on behalf of the FSM national government and the government of the several States the provisions of the revenue laws as shall from time to time require its action;

(c) to render ancillary services to the FSM National Government and the governments of the several States in the administration and enforcement of their revenue laws;

(d) to take border security and customs measures as required under FSMC Title 54, Chapter 2 or as assigned to the Authority in accordance with law;

(e) to ensure that all revenue collected is dealt with in accordance with Section 758;
(f) to promote voluntary compliance with the revenue laws;

(g) to take such measures as may be required to improve the standards of service provided to taxpayers with a view to improving efficiency and effectiveness in administration, and maximizing revenue collection;

(h) to take such measures as may be required or considered necessary to prevent tax evasion and fraud of any type;

(i) to advise the FSM national government and the governments of the several States on matters relating to the administration and collection of revenue, and border security, under the revenue laws;

(j) as directed by the Secretary, to represent the FSM national government internationally in respect of matters related to taxation and customs;

(k) to perform such other functions, in relation to the collection of National taxes as the Secretary may assign to the Authority; and

(l) to perform such other functions in relation to the collection of State taxes as the Finance Official of the relevant State may assign to the Authority.”

Section 26. Title 54 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia is hereby further amended by adding a new section 742 to subchapter IV of Chapter 7 to read as follows:

“Section 742. Powers of the Authority.

(1) In performing the functions authorized pursuant to Section 741 of this Chapter, the Authority has the following powers:

(a) to adopt, alter, and use a seal;

(b) to adopt and amend bylaws governing the conduct of its business and the exercise of its powers, subject to the provisions of the revenue laws;

(c) to sue and be sued in its name;

(d) to acquire, in any lawful manner, any personal property, either tangible or intangible, to hold, maintain, use and operate such property, and to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of such property;

(e) to retain and terminate the services of employees, agents, attorneys, auditors, and independent contractors upon such terms and conditions as it may deem appropriate;

(f) to make assessments, conduct investigations, initiate judicial proceedings, publish rules and rulings, and to take such other action as may be necessary in connection with its role as a unified tax administration for the FSM.
National Government and the governments of the several States; and

(g) to do all such other things on its own account or as agent for the FSM National Government and the governments of the several States as may be deemed incidental to or conducive to the attainment of the functions and responsibilities of the Authority.

(2) The Authority is not permitted to own any real property, but may lease real property to the extent necessary for its operation.”

Section 27. Title 54 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia is hereby amended by adding a new subchapter V of Chapter 7 to be entitled “Financial Provisions and Reporting.”

Section 28. Title 54 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia is hereby further amended by adding a new section 751 to subchapter V of Chapter 7 to read as follows:

“Section 751. Funds of the Authority.

(1) Establishment. There shall be established a Federated States of Micronesia Special Fund, hereinafter referred to as the “Fund”, separate and apart from all public monies or funds of the Federated States of Micronesia, which shall be administered by the authority exclusively for the purposes of this Chapter.
(2) Deposits. Except as may otherwise be required by grantors in cases of grants, all funds specified under Subsection 5 hereof, and all funds derived from deductions made pursuant to Section 752 hereof, shall be deposited in the Fund. Any unexpended moneys in this Fund shall neither revert nor lapse to the General Fund, or any other Fund.

(3) Administration. The Fund shall be administered by the CEO in accordance with the regulations and procedures which the Board shall promulgate as appropriate for the effectuation and implementation of the provisions of this subchapter. Procurement of goods and services to be funded wholly or partially from the Fund shall be subject to the Financial Management Act of 1979 and its subsidiary regulation.

(4) Authority funds. The funds of the Authority consist of-

(a) money appropriated from time to time by Congress and paid to the Authority.

(b) money derived from the disposal, lease, or hire of, or any other dealing with, any property vested in or acquired by the Authority;

(c) money borrowed by the Authority in accordance with subsection (2);

(d) income from investments referred to in subsection (3); and

(e) except as provided herein, any other moneys that may become payable to the Authority in respect of any matter incidental to its functions and powers, including but not limited to grants or other donated funding; and

(f) money deducted for the operations of the Authority pursuant to Section 752 hereof.

(5) The Authority may borrow upon such terms and conditions as the Board may approve, any sums required by the Authority to meet any of its obligations or to perform any of its functions.

(6) The Authority shall, to the extent practicable, maintain its funds in the form of liquid, interest bearing bank deposits.

(7) The Authority shall conserve its funds by performing its functions and exercising its powers under this Chapter so as to ensure that the total revenues of the Authority are sufficient to meet all sums properly chargeable to its revenue account including depreciation and interest on capital.

(8) The funds of the Authority do not include National and State taxes, or any interest or penalty in relation to such taxes, collected by the Authority on behalf of the FSM National Government or the governments of the several States.”

Section 29. Title 54 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia is hereby further amended by adding a new section 752 to subchapter V of Chapter 7 to read as follows:

“Section 752. Funding of URA Operations.

Unless otherwise provided by an Act of Congress, the Authority shall deduct from the National Government’s share of the National Taxes collected during the current year an amount not exceeding the prescribed percentage as funds for its operations in the ensuing year. Such deductions shall be deemed appropriated as if set forth in the Comprehensive Budget Act for the relevant fiscal year.”

Section 30. Title 54 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia is hereby further amended by adding a new section 753 to subchapter V of Chapter 7 to read as follows:

“Section 753. Taxes Collected by the Authority Held in Trust for National or State Governments.

(1) The National Taxes collected by the Authority are held by the Authority in trust for the FSM National Government and the governments of the several States in the proportion specified in Section 758.

(2) The State taxes collected by the Authority on behalf of a State are held by the Authority in trust
Section 758.

(3) The amounts referred to in subsections (1) and (2) do not form part of the assets of the Authority available to meet the claims of creditors of the Authority.

Section 31. Title 54 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia is hereby further amended by adding a new section 754 to subchapter V of Chapter 7 to read as follows:

"Section 754. Expenditure to be Charged on Funds of the Authority.

(1) The funds of the Authority must be expended for the purposes of-

(a) paying any expenditure lawfully incurred by the Authority in the performance of its functions or the exercise of its powers under the revenue laws;

(b) discharging any obligations and liabilities of the Authority and making any payments that the Authority is required or authorized to make;

or

(c) paying any expenses for carrying into effect the provisions of the revenue laws.

(2) The FSM national government and the governments of the several States are not liable for any debts incurred by the Authority unless all the governments have agreed otherwise in relation to a particular debt or debts.”

Section 32. Title 54 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia is hereby further amended by adding a new section 755 to subchapter V of Chapter 7 to read as follows:

(1) The Authority shall maintain one or more bank accounts into which funds of the Authority shall be deposited and from which operational expenses are paid. Funds of the Authority shall be deposited into the appropriate account no later than the next business day.

(2) The Authority shall maintain a separate bank account for each Government. The Authority shall deposit the funds held in trust pursuant to Section 753 into the respective account of each Government. Such funds collected by the Authority shall be deposited into the appropriate account no later than the next business day. The Authority shall not commingle funds.

(3) No withdrawal or payment of money from an account opened under Subsection (1) can be made without the signature of the CEO or his/her designee. No withdrawal or payment of money from an account opened under Subsection (2) can be made without the signature of the CEO or his/her designee and the signature of the Chief Financial Officer of the Authority or his/her designee.

(4) No amount can be withdrawn from an account opened under Subsection (2) except in making a refund of tax deposited into the account or in the transfer of the balance of the account of the FSM National Government or a State Government in accordance with Section 758.

(5) The Authority shall maintain in each account a sufficient balance to meet minimum bank balance requirements as set by the bank.”

Section 25. Title 54 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia is hereby further amended by adding a new section 756 to subchapter V of Chapter 7 to read as follows:

“Section 756. Annual Budget and Costs of Administration.

(1) At such time and in such manner as the Board may prescribe, but not later than six months prior to the close of the current fiscal year, the CEO shall submit to the Board a detailed estimate of the budget for the next ensuing fiscal year for the proper conduct of the Authority. This submission shall include:

(a) for the last completed fiscal year,
audited accounts indicating the amount of revenue collected by the Authority on behalf of the FSM national government and the governments of the several States, the amount of other income of the Authority, and the amount of all expenditures incurred by the Authority, together with the closing balance of all bank accounts maintained by the Authority;

(b) for the fiscal year in progress, a statement showing the estimated amount of revenue to be collected on behalf of the FSM national government and the governments of the several States, the estimated amount of other income of the Authority, and the estimated amount of all expenditures to be incurred by the Authority, together with such summaries, schedules, and supporting data as the board or the President may require by notice in writing to the CEO; and
