AN ACT

To provide for immigration control, and for other purposes.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS OF THE FEDERATED STATES OF MICRONESIA:

1. Section 1. Short Title. This act is known and may be cited as the Immigration Act.

2. Section 2. Entry Permit Required. No noncitizen, vessel, or aircraft, unless specifically exempted by applicable law and regulations, shall enter or otherwise remain in the Federated States of Micronesia without having been issued an appropriate entry permit except for duly accredited diplomatic personnel and their spouses and unmarried children under the age of eighteen. Entry permits to visit or otherwise remain in the Federated States of Micronesia shall be issued by the President in accordance with laws and regulations to be promulgated or issued pursuant to this act.

   (1) A permit is not required for a person visiting for 30 days or less. For a visit in excess of 30 days a permit may be issued for an additional period not to exceed 60 days.

   (2) A visitor's permit for any lawful purpose including performance of necessary services on a short term contractual basis may be issued for a period of specified duration reflecting the time necessary to accomplish the purpose.

   (3) A government worker's entry permit shall be issued to a noncitizen entering the Federated States of Micronesia to perform a contract entered into with any office, subdivision or agency of the National Government or any state or local government for the duration of the employment contract and may be renewed only if the employment contract is renewed and only for the duration of the renewed contract of employment.

(4) A private sector alien worker's entry permit shall be issued to a noncitizen upon compliance with all applicable national laws and regulations relating to private employment for the period in which the employment of the alien worker is authorized and the permit shall be renewed upon extension or renewal of the alien's lawful employment status.

(5) A foreign investor's entry permit shall be issued for a specified duration and may be renewed upon renewal or extension of such foreign investor's business permit.

(6) A researcher's entry permit shall be issued for research in the fields of endeavor that the President deems in the best interest of and for the well-being of the citizens of the Federated States of Micronesia; PROVIDED, that the President receive from the researcher's intended place of stay prior permission for his entry. The President may attach thereto such conditions or restrictions as he deems necessary.

(7) A missionary's permit shall be issued to a duly ordained, licensed and certified minister or clergyman. A missionary's permit may also be issued to persons whose activities are substantially connected with religious or missionary work as determined by the President.

(8) An entry permit shall be issued to a lawful spouse of a citizen. The permit shall be revoked or shall be denied upon a finding that the parties are divorced or irreconcilably separated, or that the citizen-spouse is deceased. The President or his designee has the authority to grant or reissue the permit for indefinite duration upon a finding of hardship.

(9) A dependent's entry permit may be issued to an unmarried child, under the age of eighteen, or a noncitizen spouse subject to the conditions in Subsection (8) of this section.

(10) A spouse or unmarried child under the age of eighteen of any noncitizen principal listed in this section except Subsection (9) may be issued an entry permit for the duration of the principal's entry permit and may be renewed upon renewal of the principal's entry permit.

(11) Unless otherwise specified, all entry permits are limited to one year maximum period with provision for renewal.

(12) The immigration status of any noncitizen entering or residing in the Federated States of Micronesia may not be changed during his stay in the Federated States of Micronesia except upon written authorization by the President or his designee. For the noncitizen to change status, he shall be required to leave the jurisdiction of the Federated States of Micronesia and upon re-entry apply for a permit reflecting his changed status. The President may impose conditions for such change of status.

Section 4. Application for Entry Permit. Application for a permit to enter the Federated States of Micronesia shall be made to the President and in such form and manner as he may prescribe from time to time.

Section 5. Delegation of Authority. The President may delegate his authority to issue entry permits and to permit entry into the Federated States of Micronesia of persons, vessels and aircraft under the provisions of this act and regulations promulgated pursuant thereto.

Section 6. Standards of Exclusion and Deportation.

(1) The President may deny entry without a permit, renewal of entry without a permit, an entry permit, revoke or deny renewal of an entry permit, or deport any noncitizen for any of the following reasons:

(a) The willful furnishing of false, incomplete and misleading material information in an application for permit; or

(b) The advocacy of the unlawful overthrow of the Government of the Federated States of Micronesia; or

(c) Commission of or attempt or preparation to commit an act of treason or armed insurrection against the Government of the Federated States of Micronesia or conspiring with or abetting or aiding another to commit such an act; or

(d) Performing or attempting to perform duties or otherwise acting so as to serve the interests of another government to the detriment of the governments of the Federated States of Micronesia provided that this provision shall not apply to an employee of the Trust Territory Government when acting in an official capacity nor to an employee of the United States Government or any agency thereof when acting in an official capacity, unless the employee is acting in violation of the law of the Federated States of Micronesia; or

(e) Deliberate unauthorized disclosure of confidential government information; or

(f) Entry made on a counterfeit or false permit.

(2) The President may deny entry without a permit, renewal of entry without a permit, an entry permit, revoke or deny renewal of an entry permit or deport any noncitizen for any of the following reasons:

(a) Serious mental irresponsibility evidenced by having been adjudged insane or mentally irresponsible, or incompetent, or being a chronic alcoholic, or having been treated for serious mental or neurological disorders or for chronic alcoholism; or

(b) Addiction to the use of narcotic drugs; or

(c) Carrying a serious communicable disease; or

(d) Conviction of a felony or a crime involving moral turpitude as defined by the laws of the place where conviction took place; or

(e) A finding by the President that the entry of the applicant or his presence in the Federated States of Micronesia would not be in the best interest of the Government of the Federated States of Micronesia; PROVIDED that this provision shall not apply to an employee of the Trust Territory Government when acting in an official capacity nor to an employee of the United States Government or any agency thereof when acting in an official capacity, unless the employee is acting in violation of the law of the Federated States of Micronesia.

Section 7. Immigration Inspection of Vessels and Aircraft. Incoming vessels shall be boarded by the officials authorized by the President who shall examine the Federated States of Micronesia documents of each passenger and if the passenger is eligible to enter the Federated States of Micronesia, shall affix to the passport or the Federated States of Micronesia entry permit an official stamp or other writing showing the date and place of entry. The same procedure shall be followed for passengers arriving on aircraft, except inspection shall take place after passengers have disembarked and prior to their departure from airport terminals.

Section 8. Ports of Entry. All vessels and aircraft authorized to enter the Federated States of Micronesia must enter and obtain clearance from an official port of entry, and no vessel or aircraft shall call at any other port in the Federated States of Micronesia without first entering and obtaining clearance from an official port of entry unless the President or his designee determines that the public interest or an emergency requires the vessel or aircraft to anchor or land at any port in the Federated States of Micronesia and grants permission to do so. A vessel or aircraft in distress may anchor or land at any port in the Federated States of Micronesia, but the person having the command or charge of the vessel or aircraft shall immediately thereafter notify the nearest government representative of the Federated States of Micronesia or nearest state government. The official ports of entry in the Federated States of Micronesia until otherwise provided by regulations, are:

1. Yap:
   1. Yap;
      1. Tomil Harbor;
      2. Yap International Airport.
2. Ulithi;
   1. Ulithi Anchorage;
   2. Ulithi Airstrip.
Section 9. Ports Authorized to Issue Entry Permits. The authorized officials in each of the ports listed under Section 8 of this act or regulations issued pursuant thereto may issue entry permits.

Section 10. Foreign Vessel or Aircraft to Report Upon Entry-Manifest Required. The Master, Captain or other person having the command or charge of any foreign vessel or aircraft shall, on entry of such vessel or aircraft into any of the ports designated under Section 8 of this act or regulations issued pursuant thereto, file a manifest in the form prescribed by the regulations issued pursuant to this act and signed by such Master or other person having the command or charge of said vessel or aircraft as to the truth of the statements therein contained. Contents of such manifest shall be prescribed by regulation.

Section 11. Inspection at Ports of Entry. All vessels and aircraft entering and departing a port of entry shall be subject to immigration inspection, customs inspections, agricultural inspections and quarantines, and other administrative inspections authorized by law. If any vessel or aircraft not being in distress enters or attempts to enter a port in violation of the provisions of this act, such information shall be communicated by any person by the fastest means to the Governor of the affected state and to the President.

Section 12. Carrier Responsibility. It shall be the responsibility of each and every carrier which is engaged in the transportation of persons into the Federated States of Micronesia to ensure that such persons hold the proper documents to effect lawful entry. Persons arriving at a Federated States of Micronesia port who fail to present the required entry documents shall be denied entry and shall be returned to the aircraft or not be allowed to disembark from the vessel.

Section 13. Regulations. The President may, from time to time, issue regulations not inconsistent with law to implement this act.

Section 14. Penalties.

(1) Any person who, not being a citizen of the Federated States of Micronesia, unlawfully enters or attempts to enter the Federated States of Micronesia or having lawfully entered, remains willfully and unlawfully after expiration or revocation of his entry authorization, or who violates by act or omission any provision of this act or regulations issued pursuant thereto, upon conviction thereof shall be imprisoned for a period of not more than two years or fined not more than ten thousand dollars, or both.

(2) In lieu of Subsection (1) of this section or in addition thereto, any person who unlawfully entered, willfully and unlawfully remains after expiration or revocation of his entry permit shall be subject to deportation after hearing upon application by the President or his designee to any competent court in the Federated States of Micronesia.

(3) Any carrier violating the provisions of Section 12 shall be fined $500 per person for persons not allowed to disembark or returned to an aircraft.

Section 15. Additional Ports of Entry. The President of the Federated States of Micronesia, in consultation with the state government so affected, may establish additional ports of entry by regulations.

Section 16. Alien Registration. The President shall by regulations provide for annual alien registration.

Section 17. Repealer. Federated States of Micronesia Public Law
No. 1-79 is hereby repealed in its entirety.

Section 18. Effective Date. This act shall become law upon approval by the President of the Federated States of Micronesia, or upon its becoming law without such approval.

December 18, 1980

Tosiwo Nakayama
President
Federated States of Micronesia
