before incorporation, the corporation may collect the amount owed as any other debt. Alternatively, unless the subscription agreement provides otherwise, the

That determination by the board of directors is conclusive insofar as the adequacy of consideration for the issuance of shares related to whether the shares are validly issued, fully paid, and nonassessable.

(4) The corporation may place in escrow shares issued for a contract for future services or benefits or a promissory note, or make other arrangements to restrict the transfer of the shares, and may credit distributions in respect of the shares against their purchase price, until the services are performed, the note is paid, or the benefits received. it is organized under the laws of the Federated States of Micronesia;

(b) The name of the person to whom issued; and

(c) The number and class of shares and the designation of the series, if any, the certificate represents.

(3) If the issuing corporation is authorized to issue different classes of shares or different series within a class, the designations, relative rights, preferences, and limitations applicable to each class and the variations in rights, preferences, and limitations determined for each series and the authority of the board of directors to determine variations for future series must be summarized on the front or back of each certificate. Alternatively, each certificate may state conspicuously on its front or back that the corporation

A restriction does not affect shares issued before the restriction was adopted unless the holders of the shares are parties to the restriction agreement or voted in favor of the restriction.

(2) A restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of shares is valid and enforceable against the holder or a transferee of the holder if the restriction is authorized by this section and its existence is noted conspicuously on the front or back of the certificate or is contained in the information statement required by Section 144. Unless so noted, a restriction is not enforceable against a person without knowledge of the restriction.

(3) A restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of shares is authorized:

the following principles apply except to the extent the articles of incorporation expressly provide otherwise:

(a) The shareholders of the corporation have a preemptive right, granted on uniform terms and conditions prescribed by the board of directors to provide a fair and reasonable opportunity to exercise the right, to acquire proportional amounts of the corporation’s unissued shares upon the decision of the board of directors to issue them;

(b) A shareholder may waive the shareholder’s preemptive right. A waiver evidenced by a writing is irrevocable even though it is not supported by consideration;

(c) There is no preemptive right with respect to:

(i) Shares issued as compensation to gen general voting rights but with preferential rights to respect to shares of any class;

e) Holders of shares of any class with general voting rights but without preferential rights to distributions or assets have no preemptive rights with respect to shares of any class with preferential rights preferential rights are convertible into or carry a right to subscribe for or acquire shares without preferential rights; or

f) Shares subject to preemptive rights that are not acquired by shareholders may be issued to any person for a period of one year after being offered to shareholders at a consideration set by the board of directors that is not lower than the consideration set lower consideration or after the expiration of one year is subject to the shareholders’ preemptive rights.

(3) For purposes of this section, “shares” includes a security convertible into or carrying a right to subscribe for or acquire shares.”

Section 50. Title 36 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia (Annotated), is hereby amended by inserting a new section 148 of chapter 1, to read as follows:

"Section 148. Corporation's acquisition of its own shares.

(1) A corporation may acquire its own shares and shares so acquired constitute authorized but unissued shares.

(3) The statement of cancellation must set forth:

(a) The name of the corporation;

(b) The number of acquired shares cancelled, itemized by class and series; and

(2) If the board of directors does not fix the record date for determining shareholders entitled to a distribution other than one involving a purchase, redemption, or other acquisition of the corporation's shares, it is the date the board of directors authorizes the distribution.

(3) No distribution may be made if, after giving it effect:

(a) The corporation would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business; or

(b) The corporation's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus (unless the articles of incorporation permit otherwise) the amount that would be needed, if the corporation were to be dissolved at the time of the distribution, to satisfy the preferential rights upon dissolution of shareholders whose preferential rights are superior to those receiving the distribution.

(4) The board of directors may base a determination that a distribution is not prohibited under subsection (3) either on financial statements prepared on the basis of accounting practices and principles that are reasonable in the circumstances or on a fair valuation or other method that is reasonable in the circumstances.

(5) Except as provided in subsection (7), the effect of a distribution under subsection (3) is measured.

(a) In the case of distribution by purchase, redemption, or other acquisition of the corporation’s shares, as of the earlier of:

(i) The date money or other property is transferred or debt incurred by the corporation; or

(ii) The date the shareholder ceases to be a shareholder with respect to the acquired shares.

(b) In the case of any other distribution of indebtedness, as of the date the indebtedness is distributed;

(c) In all other cases, as of:

(ii) The date the payment is made if it occurs more than one hundred twenty days after the date of authorization.

(6) A corporation’s indebtedness to a shareholder incurred by reason of a distribution made in accordance with this section is at parity with the corporation’s indebtedness to its general, unsecured creditors except to the extent subordinated by agreement.

(7) Indebtedness of a corporation, including indebtedness issued as a distribution, is not considered a liability for purposes of determinations under subsection (3) if its terms provide that payment of principal and interest are made only if and to the extent that payment of a distribution to shareholders could then be made under this section. If the indebtedness is issued as a distribution, each payment of principal or interest is treated as a distribution, the effect of which is measured on the date the payment is actually made."

Section 52. Title 36 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia (Annotated), is hereby amended by inserting a new section 150 of chapter 1, to read as follows:

to vote on matters submitted to the shareholders, including an opportunity to read or hear the proceedings of the meeting concurrently with the proceedings; and

(iii) Maintain a record of voting or action by any shareholder or proxy of a shareholder that votes permitted by subsection (2), the FSM Supreme Court, on application of the shareholder, may summarily order the inspection or copying at the corporations’ expense and may postpone the meeting for which the list was prepared until the inspection or copying is complete.

(5) Refusal or failure to prepare or make available

If, at the time of the agreement, the corporation has shares outstanding represented by certificates and the existence of the agreement is not noted in the corporation’s articles of incorporation in compliance with this subsection, the corporation shall recall the outstanding certificates and issue substitute certificates that comply with this subsection. (4) An agreement authorized by this section shall cease to be effective when shares of the corporation are listed on a national securities exchange or regularly traded in a market maintained by one or more members of a national or affiliated securities association. (6) The existence or performance of an agreement authorized by this section shall not be a ground for imposing personal liability on any shareholder for the acts or debts of the corporation even if the agreement or its performance treats the corporation as if it were a partnership or results in the failure to observe the corporate formalities otherwise applicable to the matters governed by the agreement.

(7) Incorporators or subscribers for shares may act as shareholders with respect to an agreement authorized by this section if no shares have been issued when the agreement is made.”

"Section 210. Advance obligation by corporate action.

   (1) A corporation, by a provision in its articles of incorporation or bylaws or in a resolution adopted or a contract approved by its board of directors or shareholders, may obligate itself in advance of the act or omission giving rise to a proceeding to provide indemnification in accordance with section 203 or advance funds to pay for or reimburse expenses in accordance with section 205. (2) These indemnification provisions do not apply to any proceeding against any trustee, investment manager, or other fiduciary of an employee benefit plan in that person’s capacity, though the person may also be a director or officer of the employer corporation. “Section 212. Definitions-Directors’ Conflicting Interest Transactions. As used herein:

(1) “Conflicting interest” with respect to a corporation means the interest a director of the corporation has respecting a transaction effected or proposed to be effected by the corporation or by a subsidiary of the corporation or any other entity in which the corporation has a controlling interest if:

(a) Whether or not the transaction is brought before the board of directors of the corporation for action, the director knows at the time of commitment that the director or a related person is a party to the transaction or has a beneficial financial interest in or so closely linked to the transaction and of such financial significance to the director or related person that the interest would reasonably be expected to exert an influence on the director’s judgment if the director were called upon to vote on the transaction; or

(b) The transaction is brought or is of such character and significance to the corporation that it would in the normal course be brought before the board of directors of the corporation for action, and the director knows at the time of commitment that any of the following persons is either a party to the transaction or has a beneficial financial interest in or so closely linked to the transaction and of such financial significance to the person that the interest would reasonably be expected to exert an influence on the director’s judgment if the director were called upon to vote on the transaction:

(i) An entity other than the corporation of which the director is a director, general partner, agent, or employee;

(ii) A person that controls one or more of the entities specified in subparagraph (i) or an entity that is controlled by, or is under common control with, one or more of the entities specified in subparagraph (i); or

(iii) An individual who is a general partner, principal, or employer of the director.

(2) “Director’s conflicting interest transaction” with respect to a corporation means a transaction effected or proposed to be effected by the corporation or by a subsidiary of the corporation or any other entity in which the corporation has a controlling interest respecting which a director of the corporation has a conflicting interest.

(3) “Related person” of a director means:

(a) The spouse or a parent or sibling thereof of the director, or a child, grandchild, sibling, parent or spouse of any thereof of the director, or an individual having the same home as the director, or a trust or estate of which an individual specified in this paragraph is a substantial beneficiary; or
(b) A trust, estate, incompetent, conservatee, or minor of which the director is a fiduciary.

(4) “Required disclosure” means disclosure by the director who has a conflicting interest of:

(a) The existence and nature of the director’s conflicting interest; and

(b) All facts known to the director respecting the subject matter of the transaction that an ordinarily prudent person would reasonably believe to be material to a judgment about whether or not to proceed with the transaction.

(5) “Time of commitment” respecting a transaction means the time when the transaction is consummated or, if made pursuant to contract, the time when the corporation or its subsidiary or the entity in which it has a controlling interest becomes contractually obligated so that its unilateral withdrawal from the transaction would entail significant loss, liability, or other damage.”

Section 115. Title 36 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia (Annotated), is hereby amended by inserting a new section 213 of chapter 1, to read as follows:

“Section 213. Judicial action.

(1) A transaction effected or proposed to be effected by a corporation or by a subsidiary of the corporation or any other entity in which the corporation has a controlling interest that is not a director’s conflicting interest transaction may not be enjoined, set aside, or give rise to an award of damages or other sanctions, in a proceeding by a shareholder or by or in the right of the corporation, because a director of the corporation, or any person with whom or which the director has a personal, economic, or other association, has an interest in the transaction.

(2) A director’s conflicting interest transaction may not be enjoined, set aside, or give rise to an award of damages or other sanctions, in a proceeding by a shareholder or by or in the right of the corporation, because the director, or any person with whom or which the director has a personal, economic, or other association, has an interest in the transaction, if:

(a) Directors’ action respecting the transaction was at any time taken in compliance with section 214;

(b) Shareholders’ action respecting the transaction was at any time taken in compliance with section 215; or

(c) The transaction, judged according to the circumstances at the time of commitment, is established to have been fair to the corporation.”

Section 116. Title 36 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia (Annotated), is hereby amended by inserting a new section 214 of chapter 1, to read as follows:

"Section 214. Directors' action.

(1) The action of directors respecting a transaction is effective for purposes of section 213(2)(a) if the transaction received the affirmative vote of a majority but no fewer than two of those qualified directors on the board of directors or on a duly empowered committee of the board who voted on the transaction after either required disclosure to them to the extent the information was now known by them or compliance with subsection (2); provided however that action by a committee is so effective only if:

(a) All its members are qualified directors; and

(b) Its members are either all the qualified directors on the board or are appointed by the affirmative vote of a majority of the qualified directors on the board.

(2) If a director has a conflicting interest respecting a transaction, but neither the director nor a related person of the director, as set forth in the definition of "related person", in section 212, is a party to the transaction, and if the director has a duty under law or professional canon, or a duty of confidentiality to another person, respecting information relating to the transaction such that the director may not make the required disclosure described in subsection (b) of the definition of “required disclosure” in section 212, then disclosure is sufficient for purposes of subsection (1) if the director:

    (a) Discloses to the directors voting on the transaction the existence and nature of the directors’ conflicting interest and informs them of the character and limitations imposed by that duty before their vote on the transaction; and

    (b) Plays no part, directly or indirectly, in their deliberations or vote.

(3) A majority but not fewer than two of all of the qualified directors on the board of directors, or on the committee, constitutes a quorum for purposes of action that complies with this section. The action of directors that otherwise complies with this section is not affected by the presence or vote of a director who is not a qualified director.

(4) For purposes of this section, “qualified director” means, with respect to a director’s conflicting interest transaction, any director who does not have either:

    (a) A conflicting interest respecting the transaction; or

(b) A familial, financial, professional, or employment relationship with a second director who does have a conflicting interest respecting the transaction, which relationship would, in the circumstances, reasonably to be expected to exert an influence on the first director’s judgment when voting on the transaction.”

Section 117. Title 36 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia (Annotated), is hereby amended by inserting a new section 215 of chapter 1, to read as follows:

“Section 215. Shareholders’ action.

(1) Shareholders’ action respecting a transaction is effective for purposes of section 213 (2)(b) if a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the holders of all qualified shares were cast in favor of the transaction after:

(a) Notice to shareholders describing the director’s conflicting interest transaction;

(b) Provision of the information referred to in subsection (4); and

(c) Required disclosure to the shareholders who voted on the transaction to the extent the information was not known by them.

(2) For purposes of this section, “qualified shares” means any shares entitled to vote with respect to the director’s conflicting interest transaction except shares that, to the knowledge, before the vote, of the secretary or other officer or agent of the corporation authorized to tabulate votes, are beneficially owned or the voting of which is controlled by a director who has a conflicting interest respecting the transaction or by a related person of the director, or both.

(3) A majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the holders of all qualified shares constitutes a quorum for purposes of action that complies with this section.
Subject to subsections (4) and (5), shareholders’ action that otherwise complies with this section is not affected by the presence of holders, or the voting, of shares that are not qualified shares.

(4) For purposes of compliance with subsection (1), a director who has a conflicting interest respecting the transaction, before the shareholders’ vote, shall inform the secretary or other officer or agent of the corporation authorized to tabulate votes of the number, and the identity of persons holding or controlling the vote, of all shares that the director knows are beneficially owned or the voting of which is controlled by the director or by a related person of the director, or both.
(5) If a shareholders’ vote does not comply with subsection (1) solely because of a failure of a director to comply with subsection (4), and if the director establishes that the director’s failure did not determine and was not intended by the director to influence the outcome of the vote, the court, with or without further proceedings respecting section 213 (2)(c), may take such action respecting the transaction and the director, and give such effect, if any, to the shareholders’ vote, as it considers appropriate in the circumstances.”

Section 118. Title 36 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia (Annotated), is hereby amended by inserting a new section 216 of chapter 1, to read as follows:

conversion has not become effective, the conversion may be abandoned if a statement, executed on behalf of the converting entity by an officer or other duly authorized representative and stating that the plan of conversion has been abandoned in accordance with applicable law, is filed with the Registrar prior to the effective date of the conversion. Section 173. Title 36 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia (Annotated), is hereby amended by inserting a new section 271 of chapter 1, to read as follows:

"Section 271. Election to purchase in lieu of dissolution.

(1) In a proceeding under section 267(1)(b) to dissolve a corporation that has no shares listed on a national securities exchange or regularly traded in a market maintained by one or more members of a national or affiliated securities association, the corporation may elect or, if it fails to elect, one or more shareholders may elect to purchase all shares owned by the petitioning shareholder at the fair value of the shares. An election pursuant to this section shall be irrevocable unless the court determines that it is equitable to set aside or modify the election.

(2) An election to purchase pursuant to this section may be filed with the court at any time within ninety days after the filing of the petition under section 267(1)(b) or at such later time as the court in its discretion may allow. If the election to purchase is filed by one or more shareholders, the corporation, within ten days thereafter, shall give written notice to all shareholders, other than the petitioning shareholder. The notice shall state the name and number of shares owned by the petitioning shareholder and the name and number of shares owned by each electing shareholder and shall advise the recipients of their right to join in the election to purchase shares in accordance with this section. Shareholders who wish to participate shall file notice of their intention to join in the purchase no later than thirty days after the effective date of the notice to them. All shareholders who have filed an election or notice of their intention to participate in the election to purchase thereby become parties to the proceeding and shall participate in the purchase in proportion to their ownership of shares as of the date the first election was filed, unless they otherwise agree or the court otherwise directs. After an election has been filed by the corporation or one or more shareholders, the proceeding under section 267(1)(b) may not be discontinued or settled, nor may the petitioning shareholder sell or otherwise dispose of the shareholder's shares, unless the court determines that it would be equitable to the corporation and the shareholders, other than the petitioning shareholder, to permit the discontinuance, settlement, sale, or other disposition.

(3) If, within sixty days of the filing of the first election, the parties reach agreement as to the fair value and terms of purchase of the petitioning shareholder's shares, the court shall enter an order directing the purchase of the petitioning shareholder's shares upon the terms and conditions agreed to by the parties.

(4) If the parties are unable to reach an agreement as provided for in subsection (3), the court, upon application of any party, shall stay the section 267(1)(b) proceedings and determine the fair value of the petitioning shareholder's shares as of the day before the date on which the petition under section 267(1)(b) was filed or as of any other date the court deems appropriate under the circumstances.

(5) Upon determining the fair value of the shares, the court shall enter an order directing the purchase upon the terms and conditions that the court deems appropriate, which may include payment of the purchase price in installments, where necessary in the interests of equity, provision for security to assure payment of the purchase price and any additional costs, fees, and expenses as may have been awarded, and, if the shares are to be purchased by shareholders, the allocation of shares among them. In allocating the petitioning shareholder's shares among holders of different classes of shares, the court shall attempt to preserve the existing distribution of voting rights among holders of different classes insofar as practicable and may direct that holders of a specific class or classes shall not participate in the purchase. Interest may be allowed at the rate and from the date determined by the court to be equitable, but if the court finds that the refusal of the petitioning shareholder to accept an offer of payment was arbitrary or otherwise not in good faith, no interest shall be allowed. If the court finds that the petitioning shareholder had probable grounds for relief under section 267(1)(b)(ii), it may award to the petitioning shareholder reasonable fees and expenses of counsel and of any experts employed by the petitioning shareholder.

(6) Upon entry of an order under subsection (3) or (5), the court shall dismiss the petition to dissolve the corporation under section 267, and the petitioning shareholder shall no longer have any rights or status as a shareholder of the corporation, except the right to receive the amounts awarded to the petitioning shareholder by the order of the court that shall be enforceable in the same manner as any other judgment.

(7) The purchase ordered pursuant to subsection (5), shall be made within ten days after the date the order becomes final unless before that time the corporation files with the court a notice of its intention to adopt articles of dissolution pursuant to sections 257 and 258, which articles shall then be adopted and filed within fifty days thereafter. Upon filing of the articles of dissolution, the corporation shall be dissolved in accordance with sections 260 to 262, and the order entered pursuant to subsection (5) shall no longer be of any force or effect, except that the court may award the petitioning shareholder reasonable fees and expenses in accordance with the provisions of the last sentence of subsection (5) and the petitioning shareholder may continue to pursue any claims previously asserted on behalf of the corporation.

(8) Any payment by the corporation pursuant to an order under subsection (3) or (5), other than an award of fees and expenses pursuant to subsection (5), is subject to section 149.”

Micronesia (Annotated), is hereby amended by inserting a new
section 272 of chapter 1, to read as follows:

cash and deposited with the Secretary of Finance and

The powers of the trustees or receivers shall be effective for the time period determined by the Supreme Court of the Federated States of Micronesia.

(2) The relief provided in this section shall be in addition to, and shall not limit or diminish, any remedies otherwise available under the common law or other laws or regulations of the Federated States of Micronesia.
