
A RESOLUTION

Expressing the appreciation and gratitude of the Twenty-First Congress of the Federated States of Micronesia to the G-20 for its support during the Coronavirus pandemic.

1 WHEREAS, the Federated States of Micronesia is suffering from 2 the negative impacts from the global Coronavirus pandemic,
3 including, increase in unemployment, disruption of trade and 4 commerce, increased costs to the healthcare system to combat the 5 virus, disruption to education and the government of our Nation,
6 and these impacts are especially hard felt in low-income countries
7 like our small island Nation; and

8 WHEREAS, the G-20 (Group of Twenty) is an international forum
9 of governments and central banks from nineteen countries and the 10 European Union which discuss policies which promote international 11 financial stability; and

12 WHEREAS, during the Coronavirus pandemic the G-20 has 13 assisted and supported low-income countries and the Federated 14 States of Micronesia has benefited from this assistance and 15 support; and

16 WHEREAS, the Congress of the Federated States of 17 Micronesia is very appreciative of the support and assistance
18 from the G-20, particularly during this time of global 19 pandemic crisis; now, therefore,
