AN ACT

To amend sections 102 and 103 of title 10 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia, as amended by Public Law No. 2-61, to eliminate the requirement that the Representative must have specific authority before he can commit the Government of the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands; to substitute the term "Federated States of Micronesia" for "Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands"; and for other purposes.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS OF THE FEDERATED STATES OF MICRONESIA:

Section 1. Section 102 of title 10 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia, as amended by Public Law No. 2-61, is hereby further amended to read as follows:

"Section 102. Representative-Powers and duties. The Representative shall maintain the office headquarters in Washington, D.C., and shall have the power to employ such secretarial, clerical, technical, and professional assistance as he may deem necessary to the fulfilling of his duties and responsibilities, subject to appropriations for his office. He shall represent the people of the Federated States of Micronesia on a full-time basis before the Congress of the United States and before the various departments and agencies of the Federal Government and other organizations, public and private, on all matters pertaining to the Federated States of Micronesia, and shall actively and fully advocate all programs and policies duly adopted by the Government of the Federated States of Micronesia. He shall also assist the public officials of the Federated States of Micronesia with respect to all matters necessary and pertaining to the conduct of their offices, and shall render a written report on his activities to the Secretary of the Department of External Affairs once a year during the first regular session of the Congress of the Federated States of Micronesia of each calendar year beginning in 1981. The Secretary shall forthwith deliver the report to the Congress of the Federated States of Micronesia. The Representative shall be subject to the direction of the President of the Federated States of Micronesia on the conduct of his office and shall submit a monthly report of his activities to him."

Section 2. Section 103 of title 10 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia, as amended by Public Law No. 2-61, is hereby further amended to read as follows:

"Section 103. Representative—Compensation. The Representative shall be paid an annual salary of $24,000, which salary shall not be diminished during his tenure of office. In addition thereof, he shall receive an allowance each fiscal year for secretarial, clerical, technical, and professional assistance, and for all office expenses, including office rental and equipment, and such other and further expenses as may be allowed by the Congress of the Federated States of Micronesia by appropriation. The Representative and his family shall be permitted one paid round trip from Washington to the Federated States of Micronesia every two years in addition to his own travel on official business. He shall be entitled to the same benefits as the members of the cabinet of the President. For travel on official business he shall be entitled to receive the standard Federated States of Micronesia rates of per diem and actual travel costs."
Section 3. This act shall become law upon approval by the President of the Federated States of Micronesia or upon its becoming law without such approval.
