A RESOLUTION

Respectfully requesting the President of the Federated States of Micronesia to utilize fully the services of the Attorney General’s Office.

1. WHEREAS, in the estimation of the Congress, the Federated States of Micronesia National Government's Attorney General's Office is presently fully staffed with competent and able legal counsel; and
2. WHEREAS, in the estimation of Congress the Attorney General's Office is fully capable of providing a full range of needed governmental legal services to the National Government; and
3. WHEREAS, if the President and his staff rely on outside legal counsel when in-house legal counsel is competent and able to perform the same service, then precious government resources are not being expended in a prudent manner; and
4. WHEREAS, when in-house legal counsel is utilized any possible risk of divided loyalty is avoided; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED by the Third Congress of the Federated States of Micronesia, Third Special Session, 1984, that the Congress respectfully requests the President of the Federated States of Micronesia to utilize fully the services of the Attorney General’s Office; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a certified copy of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the Federated States of Micronesia.
