A BILL FOR AN ACT

To exempt from the admission requirement of taking the written bar examination of the Supreme Court of the Federated States of Micronesia those graduates of accredited law schools who are citizens of the Federated States of Micronesia and who have practiced law within the Federated States of Micronesia for at least 2 years prior, or subsequent, to graduation from law school, and for other purposes.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS OF THE FEDERATED STATES OF MICRONESIA:

1. Section 1. Any graduate of an accredited law school who is a citizen of the Federated States of Micronesia and who has practiced law within the Federated States of Micronesia for at least 2 years prior, or subsequent, to graduation from law school, is hereby exempted from the requirement of taking the written bar examination of the Supreme Court of the Federated States of Micronesia before being admitted to practice law before that Court.

2. Section 2. Any provision of the Supreme Court of the Federated States of Micronesia Rules of Admission in conflict with this act is hereby amended, pursuant to section 9(f) of article XI of the Constitution of the Federated States of Micronesia, to the extent of such conflict.

3. Section 3. This act shall become law upon approval by the President of the Federated States of Micronesia or upon its becoming law without such approval.
